

Anders Wijkman

Anders is an Executive Director and senior advisor to the Stockholm Environment Institute and a Director of the Stockholm Resilience Center.

He is also a Professor in the management of natural resources at Stockholm University and Vice President of both the Club of Rome and the Tällberg Foundation.

A former member of both the Swedish parliament and the European Parliament, Anders focuses on issues related to climate change, environment, development cooperation and humanitarian affairs.

He is a Member of the Swedish Royal Academy of Sciences, and lives in central Sweden.